"While fighting against terror, we managed to thwart the coup attempt staged by Fetullah Terrorist Organization (FETO), the partner of all other terrorist organizations. We achieved this with the nation who responded to our call that night. This is a glorious, heroic nation. As the poet says "You will walk, the nation will walk behind you", thank Allah, the nation walked behind us and did not leave us alone. They took to streets and filled the squares, airports in less than no time. But there was something different about them. What was it? Our nation threw themselves under tanks, they did not run away from F-16 or F-4 aircrafts, they rendered their chests shields against bullets fired by helicopters. As Âkif says "Shield with your body, let this shameless invasion stop," my nation shielded with their body and repelled this shameless invasion. They did this because the assurance of their independence and future was their faith."

COUP-PLOTTERS' WHATSAPP CHATS REVEALED

Security forces uncovered some of the social media correspondence between the pro-coup soldiers linked to the Fetullah Terrorist Organization (FETO). As the chats show, pro-coup soldiers were given orders to open fire on civilians who were resisting the coup attempt. Excerpts from the conversation follow:

The order to open fire on crowds

- Lt. Col. Muzaffer Duzenli: I repeat. Fire on crowds to disperse them.
- Col. Muslum Kaya: They're bringing the construction equipment to AKOM [the Istanbul Metropolitan Municipality's Disaster Coordination Center]. Fellow soldiers are opening fire.
- Maj. Mehmet Karabekir: As someone in the field, I'm opening fire on the crowd. I'm waiting.
  Use [firearms] over and over again in a controlled way. Around 10 to 15 people are rubbed out.
  No such thing as losing initiative.
- Maj. Muammer Aygar: There's an intense clash in Kuleli [Istanbul].
  We're opening fire on the crowd.
- Col. Ahmet Baykal: We have ammunition and our morale is high.

"Can an offensive on the second bridge be considered?"

- Maj. Muammer Aygar: Can an aerial offensive on the second bridge [Fatih Sultan Mehmet Bridge] be considered?
- Col. Uzay Sahin: As long as our strength holds out, my friends.
- Col. Muslum Kaya: There's a battery problem for communication with Taksim [Istanbul]. Planes just opened fire three times. We don't know where.

- Col. Muslum Kaya: The planes did well in Taksim. They say it's calm now.
- Maj. Muammer Aygar: Can we do the same to the second bridge?
- Col. Muslum Kaya: The planes are important for morale. The important thing is can the aerial support be increased when the day breaks?
- Lt. Col. Ugur Coskun: The people are asking the police to hand me over. Shall we open fire? There are too many of them.

The "crush, burn, give no quarter" order

- Lt. Col. Ugur Coskun: The people crushed all our staf and handed them in to the police at the Governor's Office. Police are trying to hold back the crowd, but it's too hard.
- Maj. Mehmet Karabekir: Crush, burn, give no quarter.
- Lt. Col. Ugur Coskun: If we open fire, we can hit three or five of them, but we can't stop them from entering.
- Col. Zeki Atmaca: Transmissions from the antennas at Camlica [Istanbul] should be cut off immediately.
- Col. Uzay Sahin: Don't get carried away, don't leave your weapons!
- Col. Sadik Cebeci: The private TV stations should be shut down.

"The coup manifesto was read out on TRT, keep going"

- Lt. Col. Mustafa Duzenli: Fellows, thank God many targets in Ankara and Istanbul were seized. The coup manifesto was read out on [state broadcaster] TRT. Keep going the same way. Whoever resists our campaign will get a firm response. This is the order. Brothers, the units that are no longer needed in their current position should be relocated to other points.
- Lt. Col. Ugur Coskun: Urgent support is needed in Sakarya [near Istanbul]. People are trying to interfere with the tanks.
- Maj. Mehmet Karabekir: Randomly open fire at Sabiha Gokcen [Airport], there's a problem there.
- Maj. Muammer Aygar: We shot four people resisting in Cengelkoy [Istanbul]. No problem.
- Col. Sadik Cebeci: There are around 3,000 to 4,000 people at the [ruling Justice and Development] AK Party's Istanbul headquarters. Support is needed.
- Lt. Col. Mustafa Duzenli: The people that gather, the police that stand against the military, they should get a heavy response from tanks. Lt. Sadik, where's the place?

JOINT DECLARATION OF THE GRAND National Assembly of Turkey

We, the Justice and Development Party, Republican People's Party, Peoples' Democratic Party and Nationalist Movement Party, condemn in the strongest terms the attempted coup d'Etat against our beloved nation, the national will, our State (particularly against members of parliament representing the national will), the Veteran Assembly; and we condemn the attacks against the Assembly which began on the night of 15 July and were quashed by the morning of 16 July.

Our nation stood against and thwarted this bloody coup attempt in a way which set an example to the whole world. This beloved nation, which protected the Republic of Turkey and its institutions at the cost of its life, deserves every praise and appreciation. We, the whole nation, are grateful to the martyrs who gave their lives for this cause and we will never forget these heroes.

The Grand National Assembly of Turkey, in its capacity as the representative of this beloved and brave nation and acting with the authority given to it by the nation, fulfilled its duty under attack from bombs and bullets, and demonstrated, once again, that it is a parliament worthy of the nation.

It should be remembered that the GNAT led the Independence War, ensured Turkey's transition to democracy, developed the democratic parliamentary system, and fought to raise the nation out of destitution and poverty to make it a member of modern civilization.

Our Assembly stood, with one heart as a single body against the coup with great courage and dignity. It provided the necessary response to the coup plotters, and the necessary message to the world.

The resolve shown by the GNAT against this sinister attempted coup d'Etat is of great value to the further cementing and development of democracy in Turkey.

Everyone should know that any future attempt of aggression against our nation, the national will, or the Veteran Assembly will run up against the GNAT's steely resolve, as it has done today.

The GNAT will continue to reflect the nation's unwavering belief in democracy.

The resistance of all party groups in the Assembly to the coup attempt through a united position and with one voice is truly significant and will put its stamp on history. This united position and single voice will further strengthen our nation and national will.

The Grand National Assembly of Turkey is at work with one heart.

The National Assembly, will make those who staged such an attack against the nation and its sovereignty pay the heaviest price within the boundaries of the law.

This joint declaration is the most tangible proof that nothing will ever be the same in Turkey. Despite our differences, we, all four political parties, stand by the national will with all our MPs and our entire organizations, and protect and shall protect the national forever.

Our nation should rest assured.

The Assembly and deputies of the Nation did not let fall and will not let fall what was entrusted to them by the nation.

Once again, we condemn in the strongest terms the attack against our democracy, our nation and the GNAT, which embodies the national will. We ask our people to avoid any act of violence, which goes beyond the limits of democratic reaction and does not befit our country.

We remember with respect, gratitude and mercy our martyrs who fell while resisting the coup. We wish a speedy recovery to those wounded and to our nation.

We avail ourselves of this opportunity to salute all brotherly and friendly countries which stood by Turkey and our nation and conveyed messages of support in these difficult times.

TURKISH TOP COMMANDER AIDE ADMITS GULEN 'LOYALTY'

"I am a member of the parallel state, or FETO. I have served this community for years voluntarily. I have obeyed the orders and instructions of the big brothers exactly," he confessed

MAIN PERPETRATOR"

Lieutenant Colonel Levent Turkkan, former aide of Chief of Turkey's General Staff Hulusi Akar, admitted to having links with FETO, which he said was the "main perpetrator" of coup attempt

"THEY GAVE ME EXAM ANSWERS"

"I took the military school entrance exam in 1989. I was a bright student and was sure I would pass the exams by my own efforts. But the night before the exam, my 'big brothers' [FETO handlers] gave me the answers to the exam"

"BIG BROTHERS"

"I continued to see my big brothers while in military school.

• "EAVESDROPPING"

"I spied on [former] Chief of Staff Necdet Ozel all the time. I put a recording device in his room in the morning and took it back in the evening."

WHILE UNDER INTERROGATION, TURKKAN ALSO PROVIDED INFORMATION ON HOW THE GULEN MOVEMENT WAS ORGANIZED INSIDE THE TURKISH MILITARY

"I believe 60-70 percent of those people who have been accepted inside the armed forces since the 1990s are linked to Gulen" "I was spying on [former] Chief of Staff Necdet Ozel all the time. I put a recording device in his room in the morning and took it back in the evening hours,"Turkkan said. "The device has its own capacity and could wiretap for 10-15 hours."

During the questioning by prosecutors, Turkkan admitted he received the device from a person who claimed to be working at Turk Telecom, Turkey's leading telecommunications company.

"[He] ordered me to eavesdrop on the general [Necdet Ozel]. He told me, 'We will tap him for information purposes; nothing is going to happen.' I did not question him and took the device," he said.

Turkkan said he had at least two recording devices, which he returned once their capacity was full.

Turkkan also admitted that Major Mehmet Akkurt -- whom Turkkan claimed was a member of the Gulen movement who he had worked closely with -- had spied on high-ranking generals, including Chief of Staff Hulusi Akar.

He did not specify the exact time when they tapped Akar.

"I think the movement has been spying on those generals in order to know what is going on inside the armed forces,"Turkkan confessed.

Once General Hulusi Akar was promoted to Chief of Staff, Turkkan said he stopped wire-tapping.

During the interrogation, Turkkan also provided information on how the Gulen movement was organized inside the Tu rkish military.

"I believe 60-70 percent of those people who have been accepted inside the armed forces since the 1990s are Gulen-linked people," he said.

Turkkan said he received information about the military coup on July 14 at around 10:00 a.m. local time from Staff Colonel Orhan Yikilkan, who served as an adviser to the Chief of Staff.

"Yikilkan told me the President, the Prime Minister, the Chief of Staff and the commanders-in-chief would be arrested... [and that the military coup] would be staged at 03:00 am on early Saturday [July 16],"Turkkan said.

Turkkan said he visited his brother to check whether he was aware of the military takeover, but failed to see him.

He told the prosecution that he met with other members of the movement in his brother's home.

"When I asked them, they angrily told me, 'How do you know? Who told you this? Did you tell anyone?'... They told me to keep quiet," Turkkan said.

After the thwarted coup attempt, Turkkan said he surrendered to military officials who turned him in to the police.

Turkkan said he felt regret for taking part in the violent coup.

"Until the coup, I thought the Gulen movement was acting for God's sake and Gulen himself had a spiritual identity," Turkkan said.

"Until today, I never thought the Gulen movement was traitorous. But now, I [have] realized what they really are. They [the members of FETO] are bloodthirsty. I have never seen Fetullah Gulen, but he is the same," he said.

"I feel regret not only for taking part in this [coup attempt],but also for becoming a member of the Fetullah Gulen movement," he added.
